

Sharing an EndNote Online Library

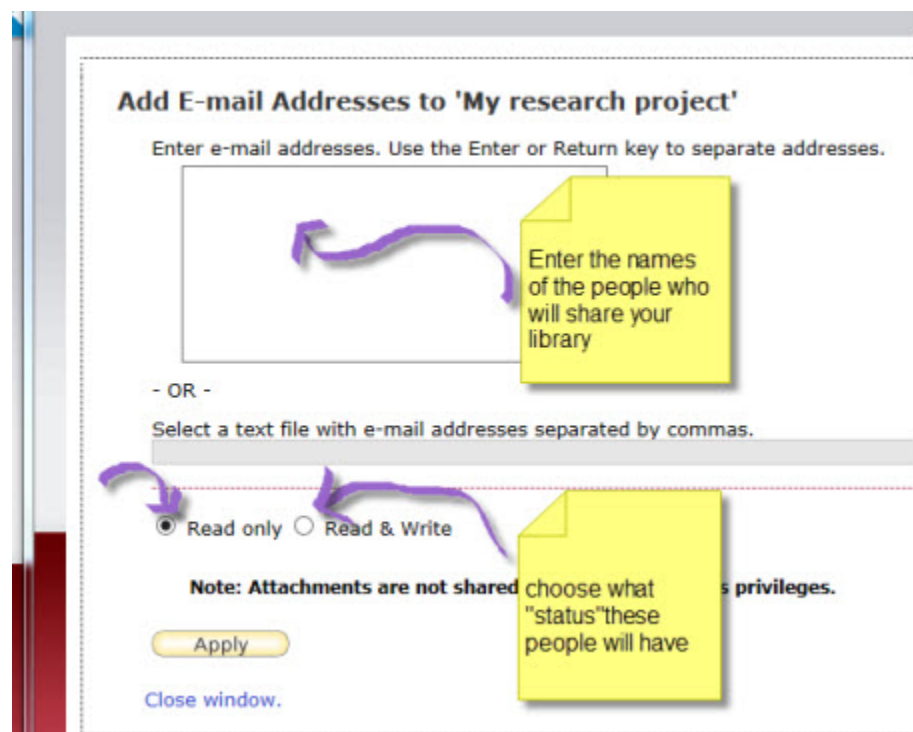

After creating your login, connect to EndNote Web at <https://www.myEndnoteWeb.com> or via the desk top version of EndNote (using the Sync button)

Now create a group of people you want to share an EndNote Library with:

- You should be logged into EndNote Online
- Use the Organize tab to select Manage My Groups
- Click the Manage Sharing button for the group you wish to share
- Click Start sharing this group

- Enter the e-mail addresses, one per line, of those you will be working with
- Select Read only or Read & Write (permissions)
- Click Apply and close the window

- Remember to click Apply
- The next time your colleague logs in to EndNote Online, she will see the group in

- My References > Groups Shared by Others
- Click on the group name to access and use the references
