

Downloading records from Agricola

You can connect to Agricola from within EndNote and download references directly.

1. Start EndNote and go to Tools -> Online Search, or click on Online Search icon  in navigation bar.
2. In Choose a Connection window choose National Agricultural Library.

3. Conduct the search and then highlight the records you want to copy and click on Copy to local library icon  in navigation bar. Your selected records will be copied to your EndNote library.

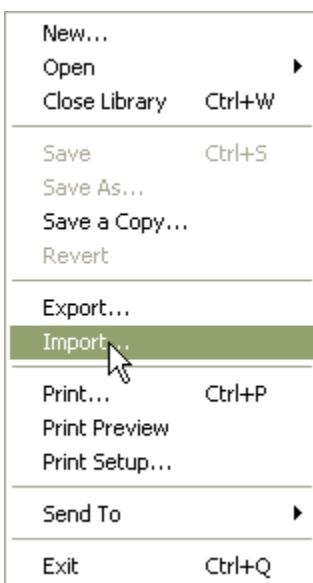

The method outlined below can be used to save records from Agricola as a txt file. This file is then imported into EndNote.

1. Mark the records you want to keep and then at the bottom of the page choose Export Format and then click on Format for Print or Save.

2. Agricola will open a browser window. Click File and Save As. Select a location for this Saved information. Save as a .txt file.

3. Open Endnote. Select File then Import ...

4. Choose your file you saved in step 2. Select AGRICOLAWeb (or WilsonWEB) as your import option. Click on the Import button.
