

Exporting records from Web of Science

- Mark the records you wish to export into EndNote
- Scroll to the top or bottom of the page and choose Save to EndNote desktop

- Open your EndNote Library, click File>Import, then select the savedrecs.ciw file you have downloaded and then choose Multi-filter(Special) as the Import Options (see below), then click on Import, then you should see the reference/s in your EndNote Library.
