

Inversion of the Canterbury velocity model

TO DO: Process the observed data and srf files for a number of sources and stations for the Canterbury region. Invert the velocity model starting from a 3-D model given by a geological method using the adjoint-wavefield method.